3. Seabrook Dog Track Update:
  - a. Judy Wilson spent day with Gerri Chasko - Director Eureka Community Initiative. Went to Wakeda and then affordable housing in Hampton Falls. Then Judy took her around the seacoast. Gerri talked to staff at library and then met with Donna who did a great job explaining what the Friends do.
  - b. Gerri had ideas about pen pals between HFFL kids and Nevada. Seems to be a higher-level commitment than Lebanon
  - c. Will be choosing 36 organizations – we need to submit formal application. Decisions will be made in November for 2020. Judy will send link for this application
  - d. Alisha mentioned that we may not be able to do another gambling fundraiser until November 2020 since we are at Lebanon in Oct this year. There may need to be a 12 month space between fundraisers
  - e. Jane will ask for ideas/help for the application
  - f. Ideas for how we would use $$ to put on application
    - i. Maybe look for childrens and/or YA authors. Susi will check with BTAF staff (Boston Teen Author festival) and Myf Collins from Newburyport festival to see if they have ideas for authors
    - ii. Doors – maybe automatic ones for front doors; possibly rear doors for back to open. Barbara would prefer to focus on front doors first
    - iii. 1000 books before Kindergarten
4. Museum Updates
  - a. 60 passes used this year
  - b. $150 approved for Strawberry Banke renewal
5. Future Fundraisers
